

Course Content - Substantial expansion of the combined programs of the present CMT and COC with emphasis on practical work in the skills of clandestine tradecraft, the study of illustrative cases from the current DD/P program, and the management problems of case officers in field operations.

Relationship to Other Courses - the new operations course will be for proficiency training in the tradecraft skills for case officers as contrasted to an expanded Operations Support Course (preceded by the BOC) to be utilized as tradecraft familiarization for inexperienced, non-operational personnel, and as contrasted to the Clandestine Services Review Course, which will continue to be conducted for field returnees. The Operations Course will provide familiarization with the subjects of the advanced courses.

Length, scheduling, current Enrollment - the First course is to be conducted in the period beginning 9 January 1956 and continuing for approximately 14 to 16 weeks. In the interim the COC will be given as scheduled (11 July - 12 August) and an additional CMT will be conducted during ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ the period 22 August - 23 September. Others requiring the training during this period but not available for those courses will be enrolled in the current CSK and Operations Support Courses, as appropriate.
